

HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

Everything from a goat on a float to a clown on a callopie, and more pretty girls than you'd see anywhere outside of Point Loma High School, featured the Daz-O-Fun parade last Thursday.

"Miss Ocean Beach is prettier than Miss San Diego," I commented after Ida Bolen and Kathy de Kirby rode past in separate but equal facilities. "Well," said somebody, "Miss San Diego is a straight-A student."

"Have TV troubles got your goat? Call Bob Horn."

That takes care of the goat on the float.

The Al Bahr Shrine clowns really had a field day at Newport Ave. and Bacon St. The character on the callopie had a pair of eyes that bugged out a foot, so help me Arthur Godfrey.

(Stevenson's Motors float had a face on front with a wickedly winking eye.)

Those clowns on bikes are always good for a laugh—especially the one jouncing up and down on the offbeat wheel. And the old Ford without a driver, just a clown on the back seat. It came to a full stop at Bacon St. Then it suddenly went in reverse, causing the clown to come unglued with gusto.

Russ Wilson's Blue Pacific Nursery entry was something special. Wilson, garbed in a heavy Mexican coat, sombrero and serape, rode in a 120-year old California cart with high wooden wheels, drawn by a mule.

The other occupant was a tall banana plant.

Bonham Brothers Boys Band, always good, played "California Here I Come" as they neared the reviewing stand. . . . The S. D. Speedboat Club's car loaded with girls towed a girl on a water ski rolling along on small wheels. . . . Pretty fancy, Clancy.

Boys with bean shooters stood atop the cliff behind the entertainment stage during the Daz-O-Fun carnival and peppered performers.

Innocent fun? Maybe.

But during the beauty contest Friday afternoon a boy threw a rock and hit a girl, about 15 years old, who was standing by the stage.

It cut a gash in her head and she bled badly, according to Anne Matthias, of the Peninsula News, who gave her what assistance she could despite the lack of first-aid equipment.

"There were no police officers present at the time," said Mrs. Matthias.

Bowman Named Vice-President

Eugene S. Bowman, manager of the Cabrillo Savings and Loan Association, Ocean Beach, has been elevated to vice-president and elected to the Board of Directors, according to H. J. La Dou, president.

Progress of the Association has accelerated since Bowman's appointment as manager, according to La Dou, who said that total assets passed $1,000,000 in the latter part of July, seven months after being established. The Association is now paying earnings at the rate of 4% per annum, with the next declaration of interest earnings being Sept. 30.

'Everyman' To Be Staged At CWU Greek Theatre Sunday Afternoon

Final rehearsals are being held nightly in the Greek Theatre on the campus of California Western University for the religious and deeply moving morality play, "Everyman." This will be given on the afternoons of Aug. 18 and 25 at 4 p.m.

While the actors are going through their paces, there is much activity also behind the scenes. Colorful costumes of medieval days have been designed and executed by Sue Wilson Glick, assisted by Tomsy Pinkes and Eve Sparks.

The properties and decorations have been made by Oscar Knauer Jr. Makeup is in charge of Beverly Silva. The prompter will be Marianne Van Stelle. Bernice Townsend is program chairman. Special musical selections to be played during the production will be heard over hi-fi hook-up.

This is the third time this play has been presented by the California Western University players. Those who saw the play the two preceding summers will remember the thrilling and stirring moments of the musical action.

CWU BUSINESS SCHOOL DIRECTOR APPOINTED

Appointment of Lloyd C. Swortwood, 45, of La Jolla, as director of California Western University's school of business, has been announced by Dr. William C. Rust, president.

The business school will be located at the new CWU downtown campus at Fifth Ave. and Date St. Swortwood is a certified public accountant and an attorney. He was a vice-president of the Misco Corp., Chicago for two years. He is a graduate of De Paul University and Northwestern.

This year Garry Egan will enact the role of Everyman. Others in the cast are Joseph Hitt, Jim Peterson, Thomas Rogers, Lillian Ostrander, Garry White, Richard Arnold, Jim Burns, Tomsy Pinkes, Frances Witkowski, William Ellis, Mary Edna Swan and James Vandiver.

The box-office is in charge of Marjane Brooks and Paul Ryan. House managers will be members of the Point Loma Chapter Order of Demolay and will include Robert A. Epler, William C. Rust, Jr., Richard L. Schenck, Charles R. Frank, Fred Lipscomb, and Richard B. Reed. The ushers, members of Job's Daughters Bethel 199, will be Lucy Dukelow, Karen Dukelow, Lorah Ellis, Mary Dukelow, Stella Burnett, and Kathy Seger.

Synagogue Group To Raise Money For Cal Western

The four synagogues of San Diego, the three rabbis and a number of San Diego Jewish lay leaders have formed the Joint Synagogue Committee for California Western University with the purpose of aiding the university's current development program.

At a meeting yesterday, the group voted to undertake the raising of $100,000 which will construct and furnish the International Relations School Building on the Point Loma campus. This structure will be a gift of the San Diego Jewish community to the Protestant university which emphasizes a human relations philosophy based on the Judeo-Christian principles.

Congregations Beth El, Beth Israel, Beth Jacob and Tifereth Israel will all take part in the fund-raising project. Rabbis Morton J. Cohn, Monroe Levens and Baruch Stern are serving on the committee along with such lay leaders as Frank Pomeranz, Murray Goodrich, Abe Abramson, Edward Breitbard, Carl Esenoff, Martin Gleich, Irving Goodman, Maxwell Kaufman, Richard Lustig, Ben Margolis, Abe Ratner, Nate Ratner, Chaplain Elihu Rickel, and Frank Winicki.

Other prominent Jewish leaders will be added to the committee as the fund-raising project begins.

The new building will consist of 10 classrooms, 6 offices, a lounge and reception hall, patio and rest rooms.

News Publisher Back From Trip To Home Town

Clyde Wood, publisher of the Peninsula News, and Mrs. Wood and daughter Carole, were back this week from a vacation trip to their home town of Uniontown, Pa.

In Uniontown they visited Mrs. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Espey Sherrard Sr., and Wood's father, William S. Wood. They spent a week at Ashland, Va., visiting Espey Sherrard Jr., former editor of the Peninsula News, and Mrs. Sherrard. In New York City they visited Mrs. Wood's brother, Watson A. Sherrard.

This was the first trip east for the Wood family since 1952. They traveled by plane from S. D. to Pittsburgh, Pa., and return. "We're glad to be back home," they agreed this week.

High Qualifying Weight Required In Yellow Derby

Highest qualifying weight in the 11-year history of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby had been assured today as the result of steadily climbing yellowtail and albacore catches as the final eight-week period neared the halfway point.

Required weight as the fourth week began was 28 pounds 4 ounces and at the rate of climb it appeared that a 30 pound albacore, bluefin tuna, or albacore might be needed to gain a place among the 150 finalists by the close of the period on September 14.

Last weekend, for example, albacore catches ranged between 700 and 1000 daily and the yellowtail take was close to 500 with fewer boats taking part. Nearly all of the albacore taken were large, and many of them topped 32 pounds.

Largest albacore of the week was a 35-8 bagged by M. A. Bowman, of Pomona.

Present qualifiers from the Point Loma-Ocean Beach sector include: 30-12 albacore, Dr. A. C. Funk, 3402 Gage Place; 30-6 albacore, P. K. Matlock, 1561 Ocean Front; 29-15 albacore, H. C. Smith, 1611 Catalina Blvd.; 29-1 albacore, Mrs. Georgia Drummond, 3226 Dickens.

Daz-O-Fun Winners Announced

Janis Thompson, 15, sponsored by Gordon's Dress Shop, won the Daz-O-Fun beauty contest Friday and was crowned the next day by Howard Penney, O. B. Chamber of Commerce president.

Mrs. Bettie Knauer, chairman, announced that Carol Emmitt, sponsored by Elizabeth Bowen Dress Shop, was second, and Sheryl Zaruba, Elm's Clothing, third.

Dersch Jewelers donated a rhinestone tiara for the crowning of the new Miss Ocean Beach Saturday. Wolf Jewelers donated a diamond wristwatch and trophy for the winner and lockets for the other entrants.

Trophies Presented
The O. B. Chamber of Commerce presented trophies to all girls in the contest. Point Loma Florists gave them corsages and arm bouquets.

Judges were Mrs. Betty Betts, of the Patricia Stevens Modeling Studio; Mrs. Mary Sisson, model instructor at Fashionality, and Bill Arballo, of the Southern California Exposition and County Fair, who handles publicity for the Fairest of the Fair beauty contest.

Talent Contest
Mrs. Knauer announced the following winners in the children's talent contest:

Janet and Linda Andrews in Japanese number (songs & gestures), first place; Jerry and Buddy Ruis, guitar and songs, second; and Francine and Annette Tryka, accordion, third.

Winners Listed In Table Tennis

Seven winners and runners-up in a recent table tennis tournament at Ocean Beach Community Center are eligible to enter the city Championships to be held Friday, Aug. 16, at Municipal Gym in Balboa Park, announced Arthur Sick, principal recreation leader.

They include Stan Thompson and Bob McGee, first and second place winners in the senior high division; Lyn Chenoweth, Paul Zeagler, winners in the junior high division; Ed Denton, Bobby Dill and David Thraillkill, Special award ribbons went to finalists Rosemary Meza, Jovita Jaeger and Nina Guglielmo.

Judges were David Pinkes, Clinton Le Jeune and C. L. Dersch.

Booth Awards
At the carnival grounds, the O. B. Kiwanis-Annes booth won first place. VFW Post 2415 and Auxiliary took second and O. B. Kiwanis Club third.

Six booths were incomplete at the time of the judging, according to Mrs. Knauer. Judges were Mrs. Frederick Carlyle Thompson, Mrs. T. R. Schroeder and Buddy Turner.

Marc's Wins
Marc's Store for Men won the O. B. Chamber of Commerce trophy for the best-decorated store window in Ocean Beach.

Michael Valenti of Marc's was adjudged the best dressed male employee, with Wesley Heineke, also of Marc's, getting a special award.

Bertha Smith of Ward's Pharmacy won the award for the best-dressed female employee. A special award went to Connie Mareno of Elizabeth Bowen Dress Shop.

Judges in the best-dressed (fiesta) competition were Mrs. Walter M. Tramonti, president of the Pan American League, and Mrs. F. M. Beyer, past president, both Point Loma residents.

Winner of the top prize, a TV set, in the drawings at the carnival grounds was Lindy Chides.

Thousands Enjoy Annual Parade In Ocean Beach

John M. Dowell, chairman of the Daz-O-Fun parade, wore a pleased expression this week following the annual spectacle on Sunset Cliffs Blvd. and Newport Ave. that drew thousands of spectators.

Observers commented that it was Ocean Beach's biggest parade and probably the best.

The sweepstakes award was won by the Chula Vista Junior Chamber of Commerce for its Fiesta de la Luna float. This combined flowers and girls effectively.

El Cajon's Mother Goose float took first place among self-propelled floats, with the Coca Cola Bottling Co. entry second.

Dowell announced the other winners, as follows:

Towed floats—Cub Pack 228, first; O. B. Moose Lodge, second.

Bands—Bonham Brothers Boys Band. Decorated Cars—Pacific Shores, first; Peninsula Lions Club second.

Marching units—Campbell Chevrolet Pipe Band.

Most original—Stevenson's Motors Band & Float.

Drill teams—Fraternal Order of Eagles 244.

Cal Western 'U' Plans Football Team This Fall

California Western University will play an eight-game football schedule this fall under the tutelage of Albert (Al) Lewis, 40, head coach and assistant professor of physical education.

That announcement was made this week by Dr. William C. Rust, president.

Lewis, a graduate of Occidental College, has coached at the William S. Hart Union High School in Newhall, Calif., for the past seven years.

The schedule: Oct. 5, Ocean-side Junior College, there; Oct. 12, U. of C. at Riverside, there; Oct. 19, California Baptist College, Covina, there; Oct. 26, S. D. State Freshmen, there; Nov. 2 and 9, open dates to be filled; Nov. 16, Palomar Junior College, there.

California Western played two games last fall.

Club Schedules 'Clothing Drive'

The Nautical Club will hold a benefit "clothing drive" for the Door of Hope at its meeting in Admiral Kidd Officers Club, Thursday, Aug. 15 at noon. Mmes. Fred Scheel, chairman; E. J. Quirk and Ambrose Richmond will be hostesses.

What can one say to her first-born who reaches that magic time of life—sixteen?
What can one give?

I yearn to give a magic gift, one that will last a lifetime—a key to all that is worthwhile, a key to happiness.

All this, you say, I should have given long ago?
Why? What is it?

And you answer that it is a gift of love, understanding, patience, approval, laughter, family fun, and a chance to grow up as an individual.

(Oh, God, did I give these? The years rushing in on me, the normal everyday trials, jolts, hassles, I can't remember... But wait!)

What about the family outings (remember, once, the wild and lovely dance she improvised with a lighted stick she pulled from the campfire, and only her family for an audience?)

What about the fun she had in the playhouse her Daddy built, and the pride she showed in wearing dresses I made for her? How she loved those bedtime stories! How excited she got when she recited "Three Blind Mice!"

What about her first piano recital... her first kitten... the day her parakeet died? Or her keen community spirit in worthwhile drives and the day she sold the most Girl Scout cookies?

TRY IT—YOU WILL LIKE IT

What about our own Christmas traditions and her turns at playing Santa Claus, her parties, the surprises she loved to give her family? The poems she made up... the songs we sang together... her kitchen successes and failures?

What about her first big dance, her first corsage? What about the happy endings to the days when she thought "nobody liked her?" What about...

Are these the things she will remember some years hence? Are these her gifts?

Or will she remember the times I've scolded, my impatient ways, the moments I didn't take time to listen, and the many times I truly "didn't understand" my teenager?

What to give for a sixteenth birthday gift? I'd like to give: Faith in self and God.

Trust in others. Love and friendship, and the self-discipline each demands. Service to others.

Good attitude toward work, satisfaction in a job well done. Enthusiasm.

Strength in time of sorrow. Self-understanding.

But, you ask, what is that you're wrapping?

Oh, I'm wrapping my gift for our daughter. It's a lovely pair of opera glasses, a record album of "Oklahoma" that she's always wanted, the latest "rock and roll," and 16 crisp brand new dollar bills. There's a card inside which reads: "Happy birthday, darling, and lots of love from one you call 'square.' Your Mother."

Symphony Offers 'Joan Of Arc'

"Joan of Arc at the Stake," a dramatic oratorio portraying one of the greatest stories in history, will be presented Tuesday, Aug. 20, by the San Diego Symphony Orchestra and the 300-voice San Diego Symphony Chorus, all under the direction of Robert Shaw. This will be the last of the current summer series concerts in Balboa Park Bowl. Concert time is 8:30 p.m.

Dorothy McGuire, noted stage and screen actress and co-founder of the La Jolla Playhouse, will be starred in the spectacular production as the Maid of Orleans. She has played the role four times previously; three times with the San Francisco Opera Company both in San Francisco and Los Angeles, and once in concert form last December with the Utah Symphony Orchestra in Salt Lake City.

Richard Hale, well-known actor, will take the other major speaking role, that of Brother Dominique, the Dominican friar.

Soloists with the San Diego Symphony Chorus will be Florence Kopleff, contralto as St. Catherine, Norvada Smedley, soprano as the Virgin Mary, Diane Holland, soprano as St. Margaret, and Blake Stern, tenor, and Paul Ukena, bass, both singing several roles. A 30-voice children's chorus also will be used.

The oratorio picks up the story of Joan of Arc at the moment of her burning at the stake and tells of her career in a series of flash-backs combining the narration and orchestral and choral music in a powerfully moving manner.

Actor Jimmy Hawkins, who portrays Tagg Oakley on the Annie Oakley television show and will appear at the California State Fair and Exposition September 3 and 4, has been in show business since he was 2 years old.

Tarbell Wins Bank 'Treasure Chest' Contest

Raymond J. Tarbell of 3320 Addison St., is $50 richer this morning, after which winners were notified.

Tom Haden of 1419 Ebers St., won second prize, a $25 savings account, for a guess of 8,788 pennies. Winner of third prize, a $10 savings account, was Mrs. Robert H. Klugman, of 3035 Lytton St.

Six other contestants won free one-year rentals on safe-deposit boxes at the branch. They were:

Edward J. Hawkins, 4669 Bermuda Ave.; Jan Gustafson, 851 San Antonio Place; Stan Grau, P. O. Box 1212, San Diego 12; Jeff Gordon, 675 Albion St.; Fred M. Young, 3078 Valley Ave.; and J. E. Piburn, 3422 Sterne St.

The contest began July 25, the evening of public open house for the branch's new quarters. Manager Thomson said about 2500 persons entered the contest.
